

 A broad normative (value-informed) framework for the evaluation of individual well-being and social arrangements.

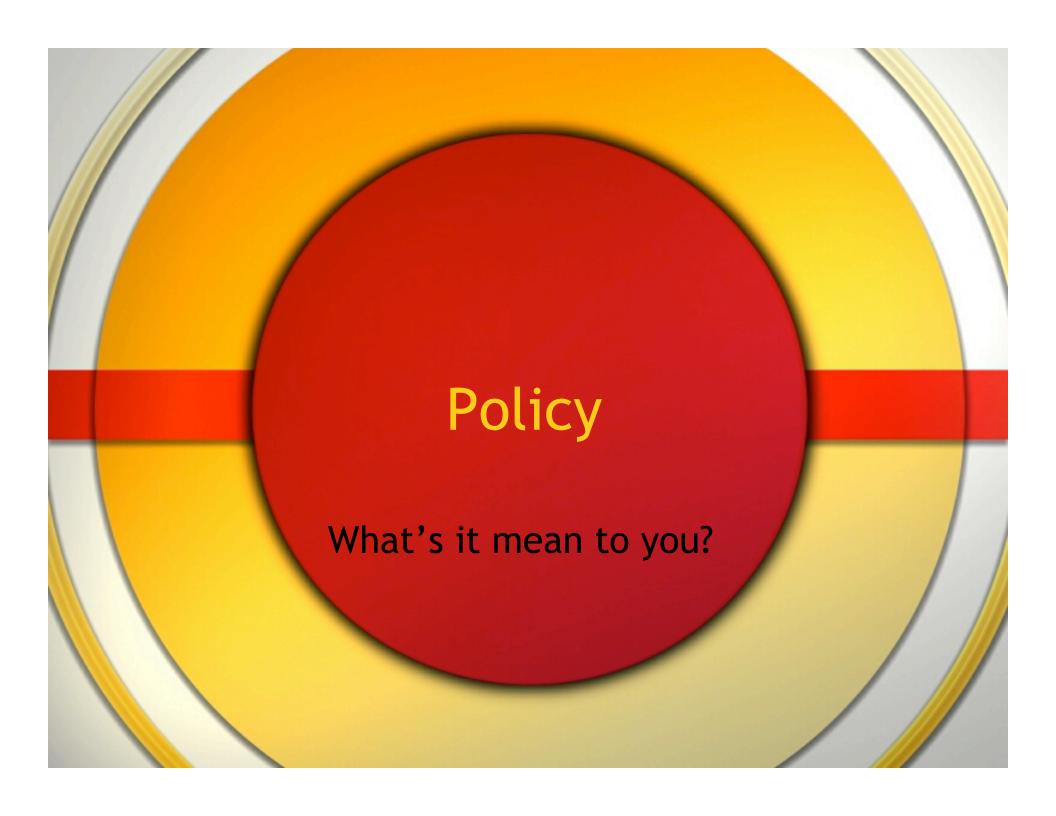

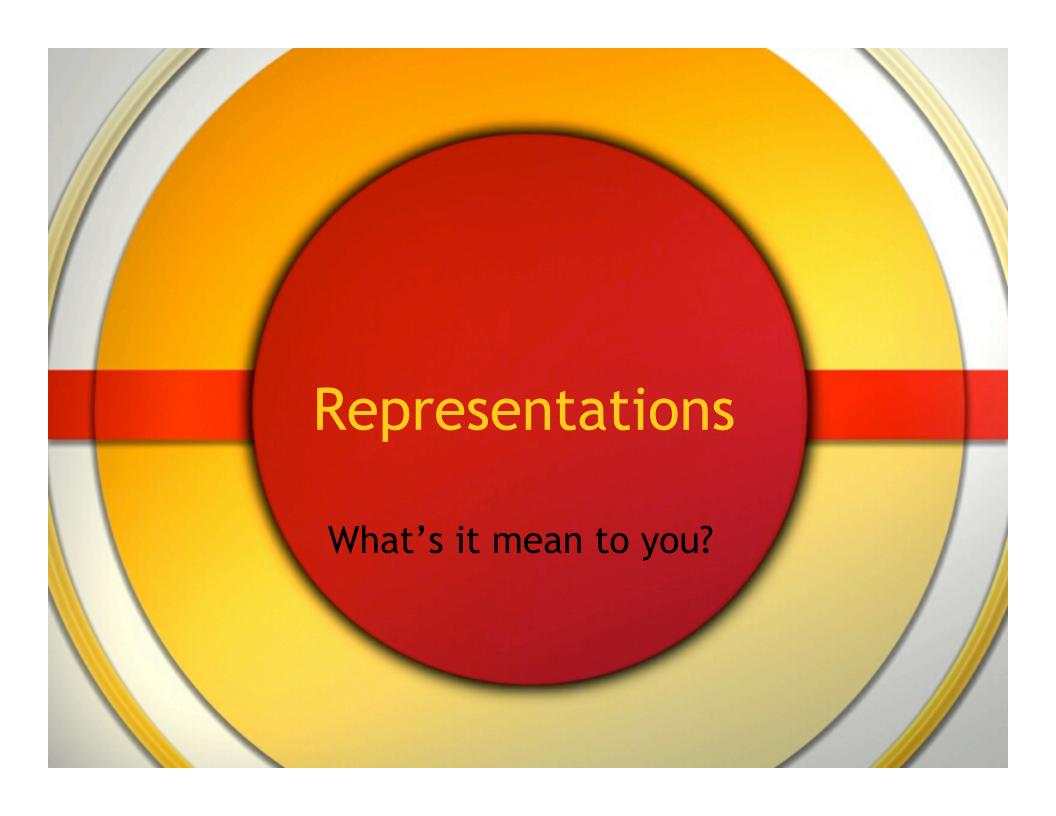

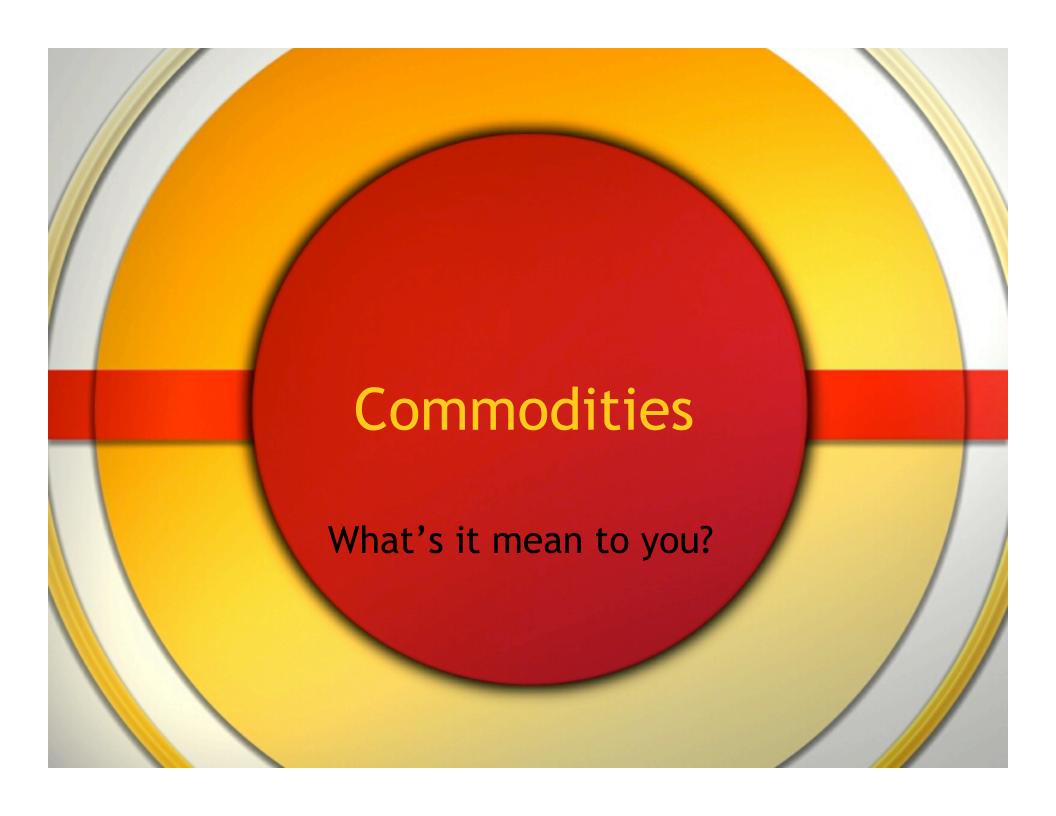

For the model

Social and Cultural Environment

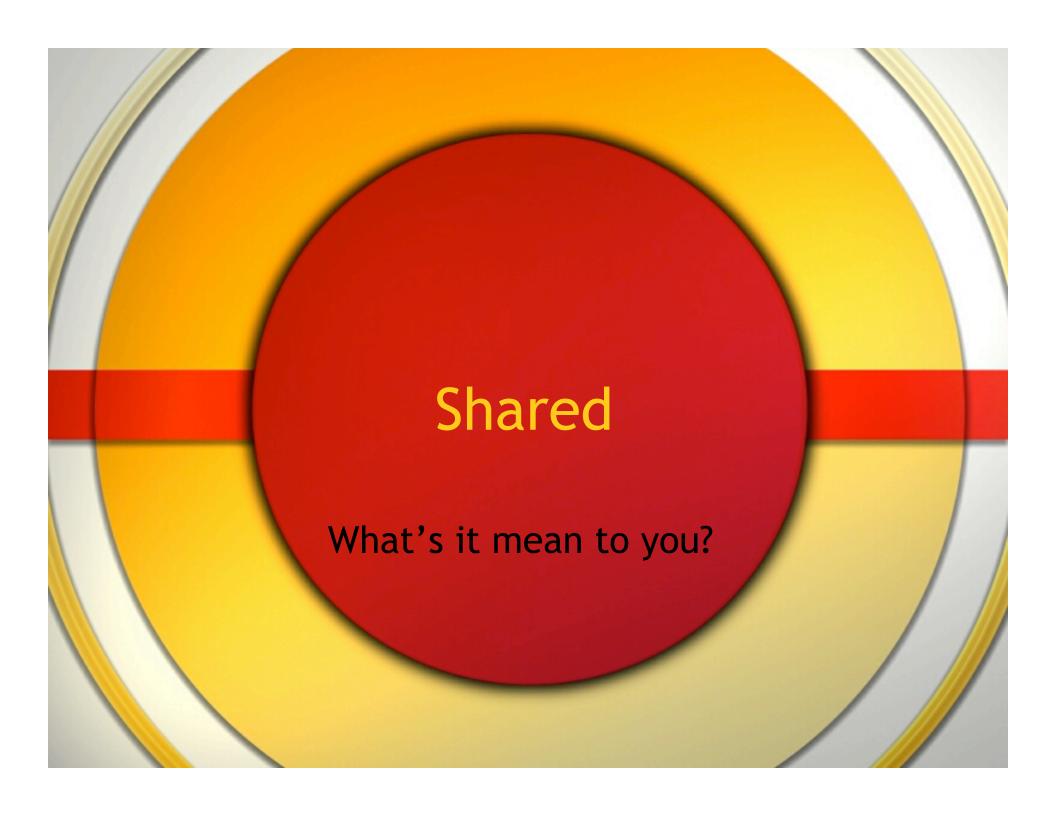

(law, custom, policy, regulation, representations)

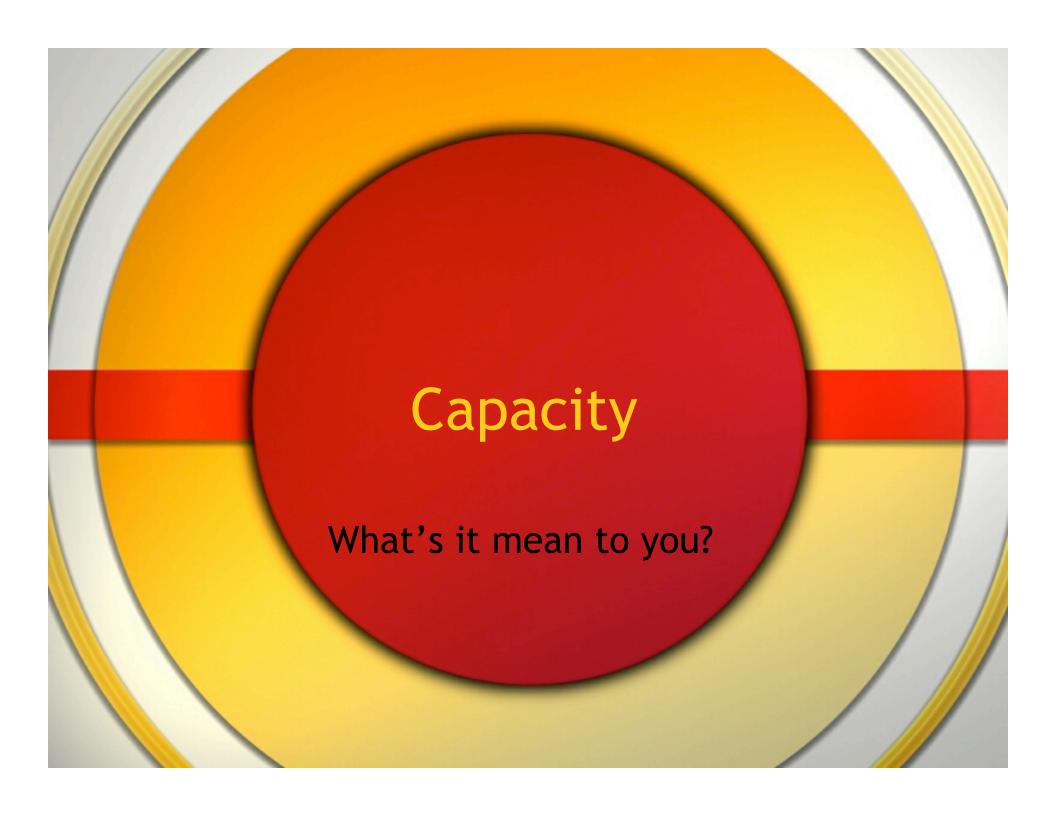

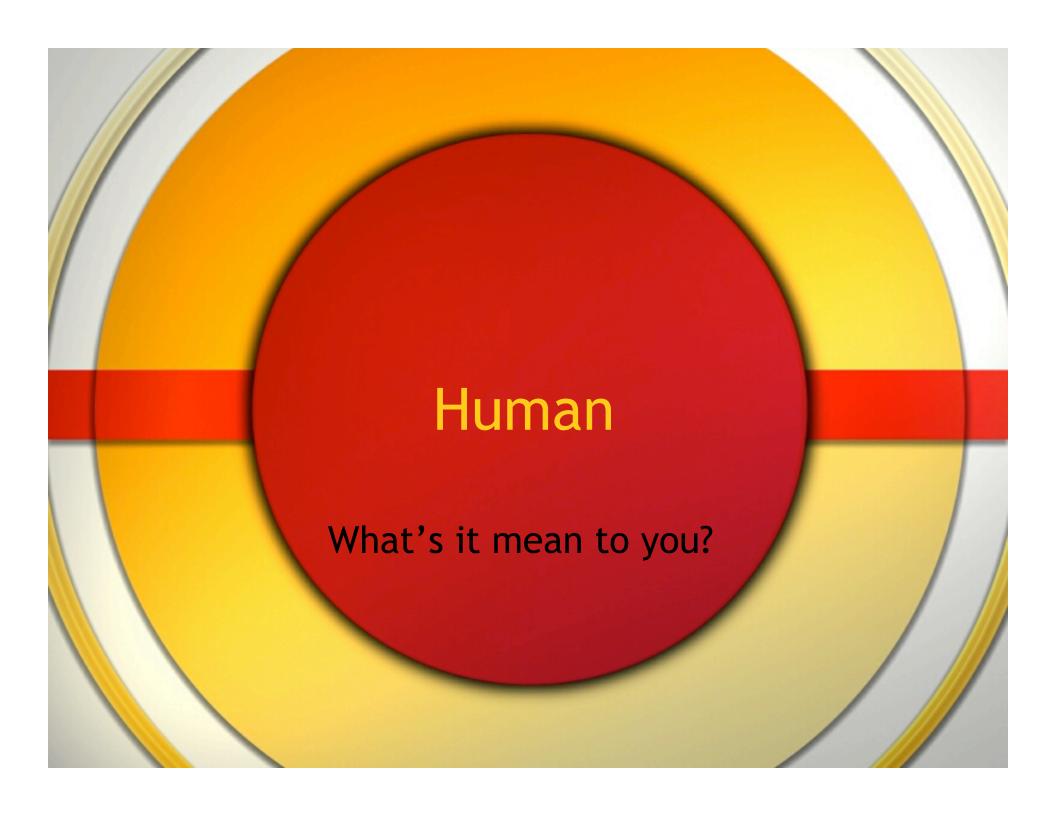

For the model

Resources and Commodities individual and collective owned and shared

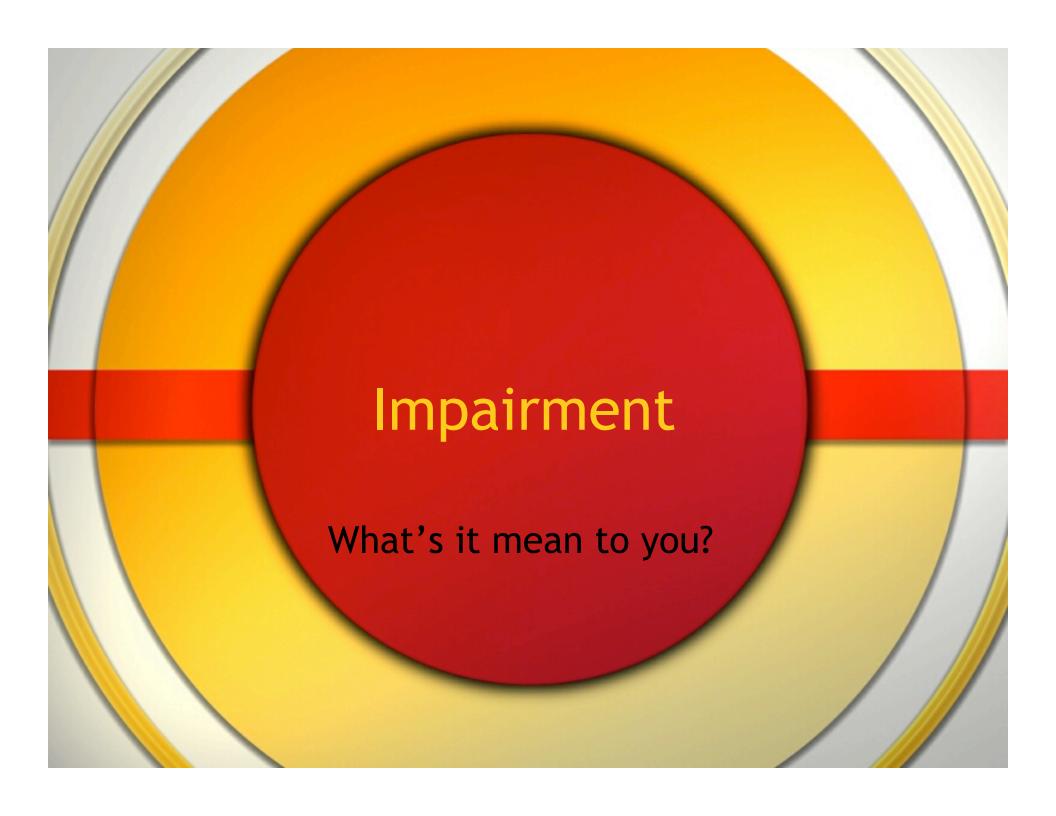

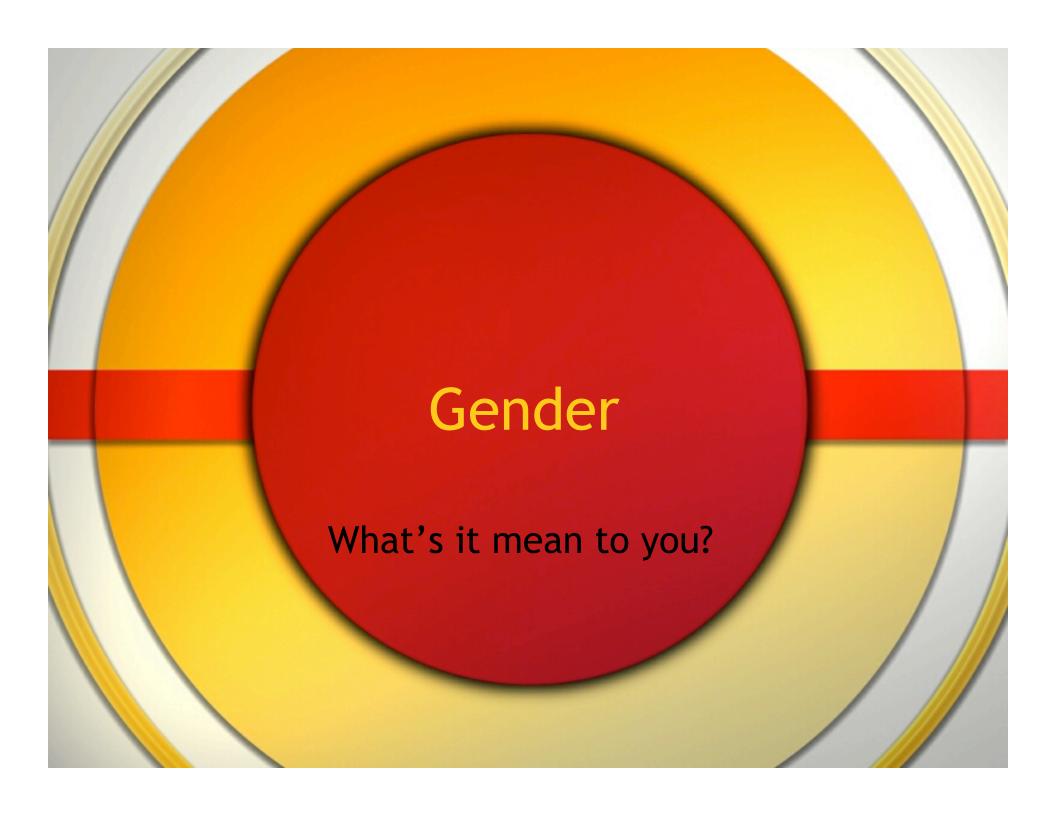

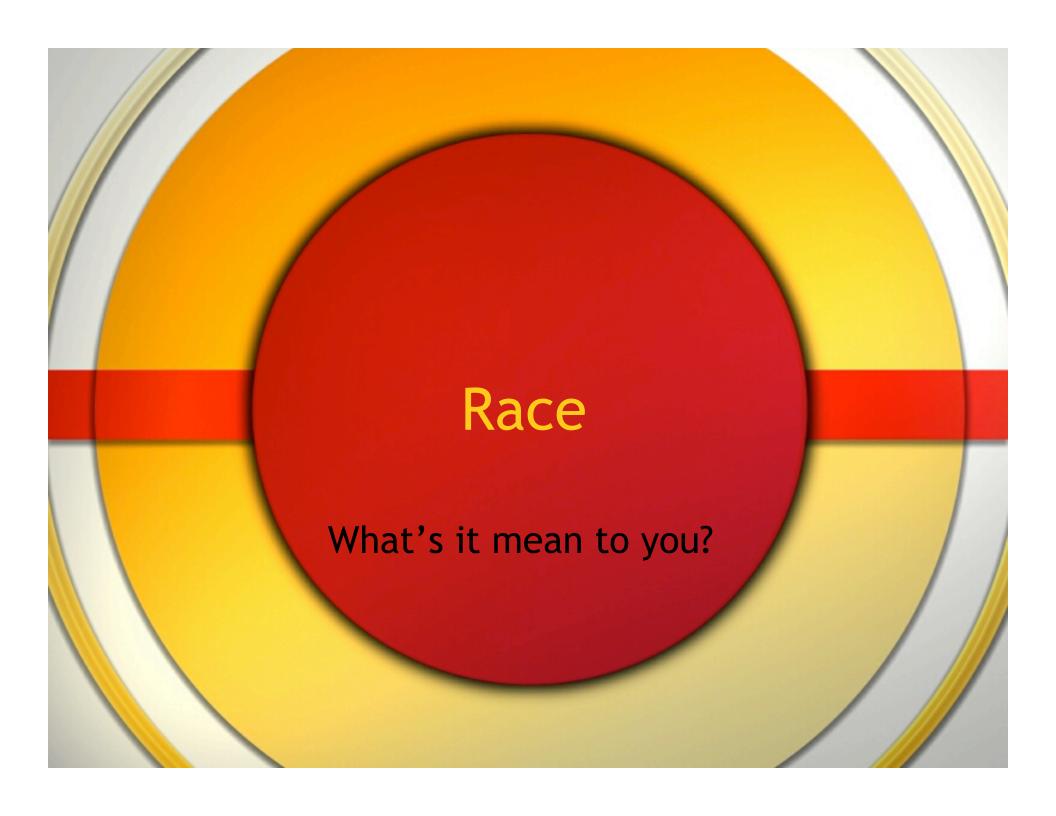

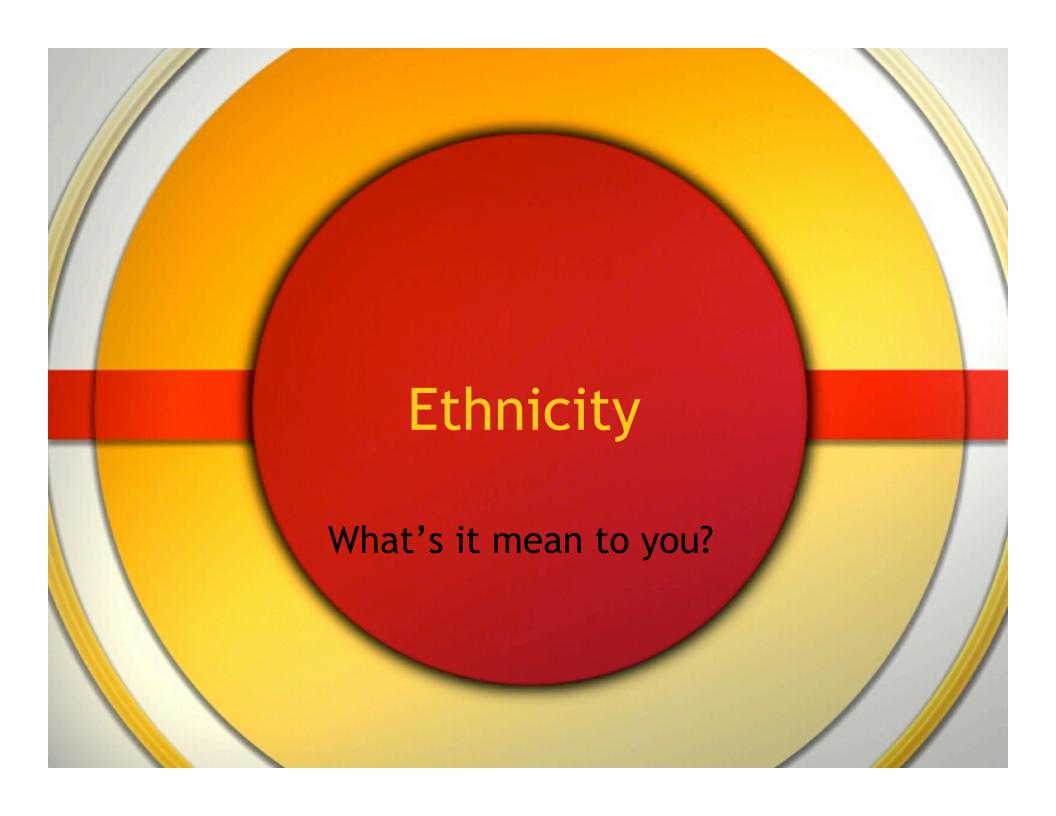

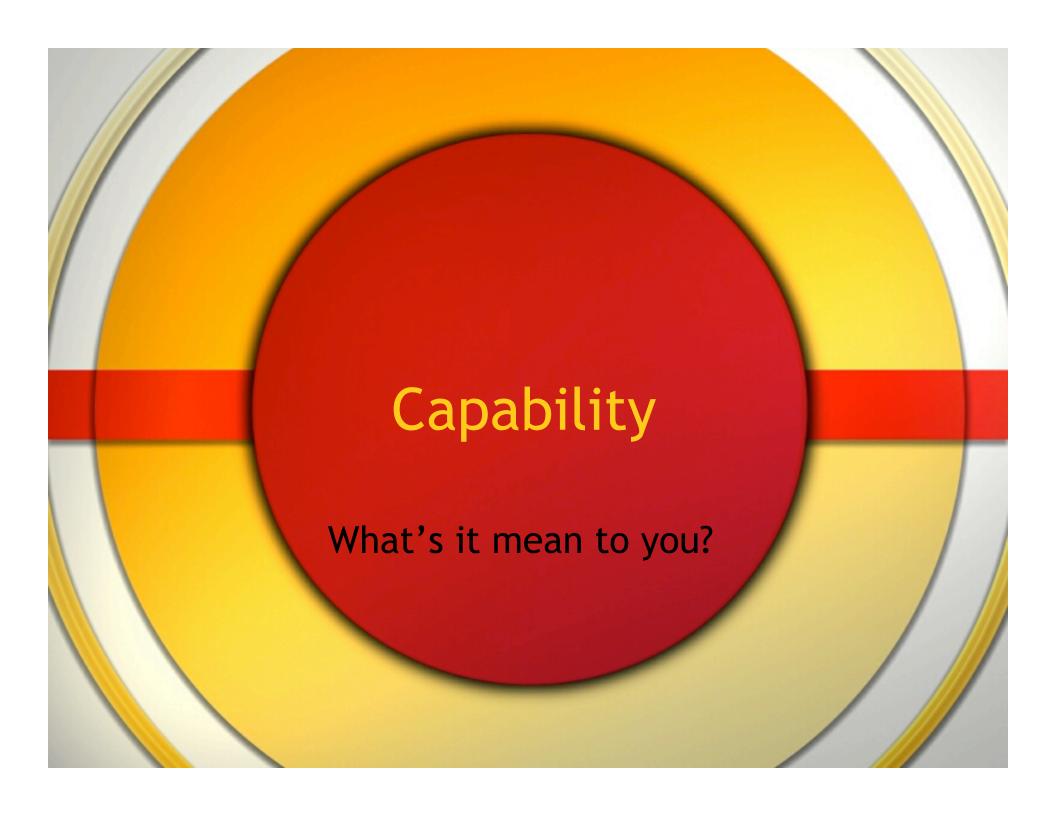

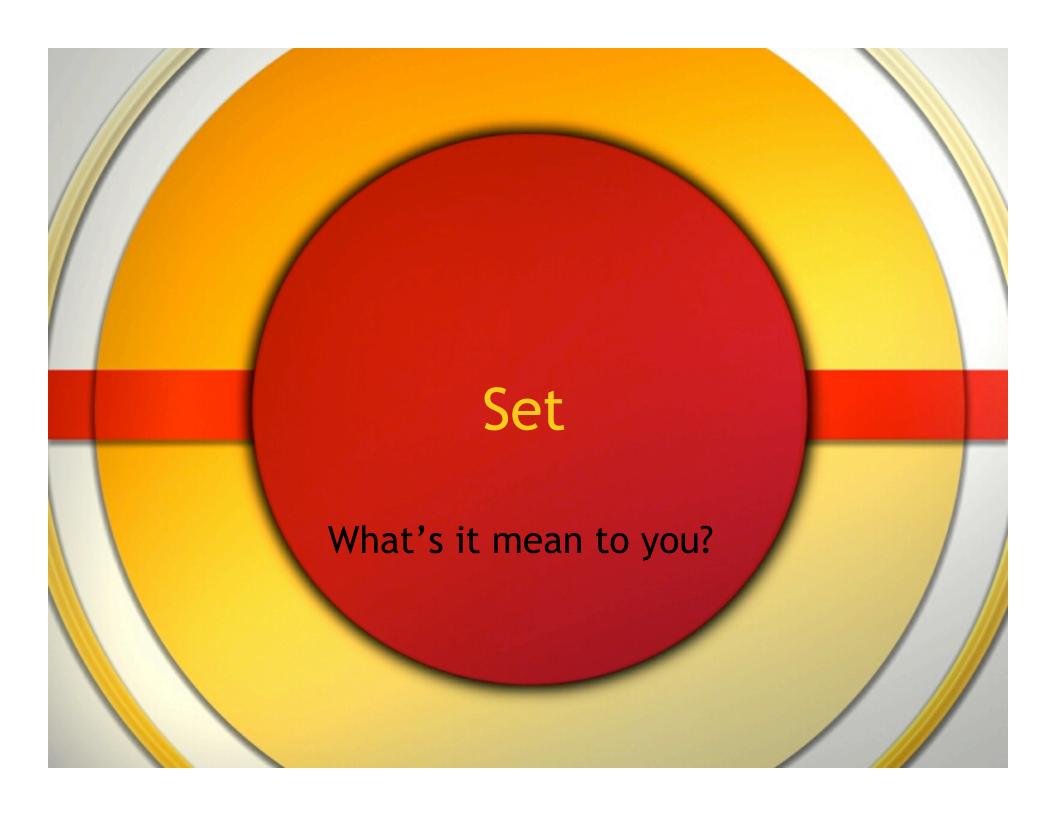

For the model

Personal Capacity

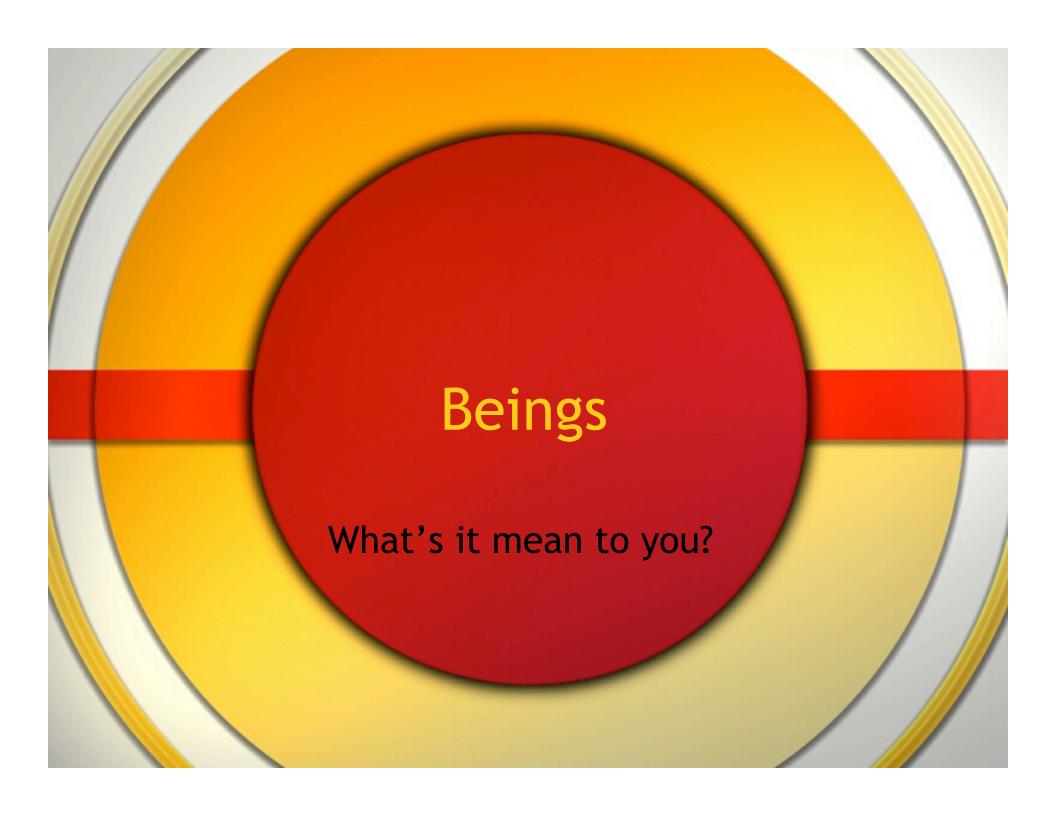

(human capital, drive, impairment, gender, race, ethnicity)

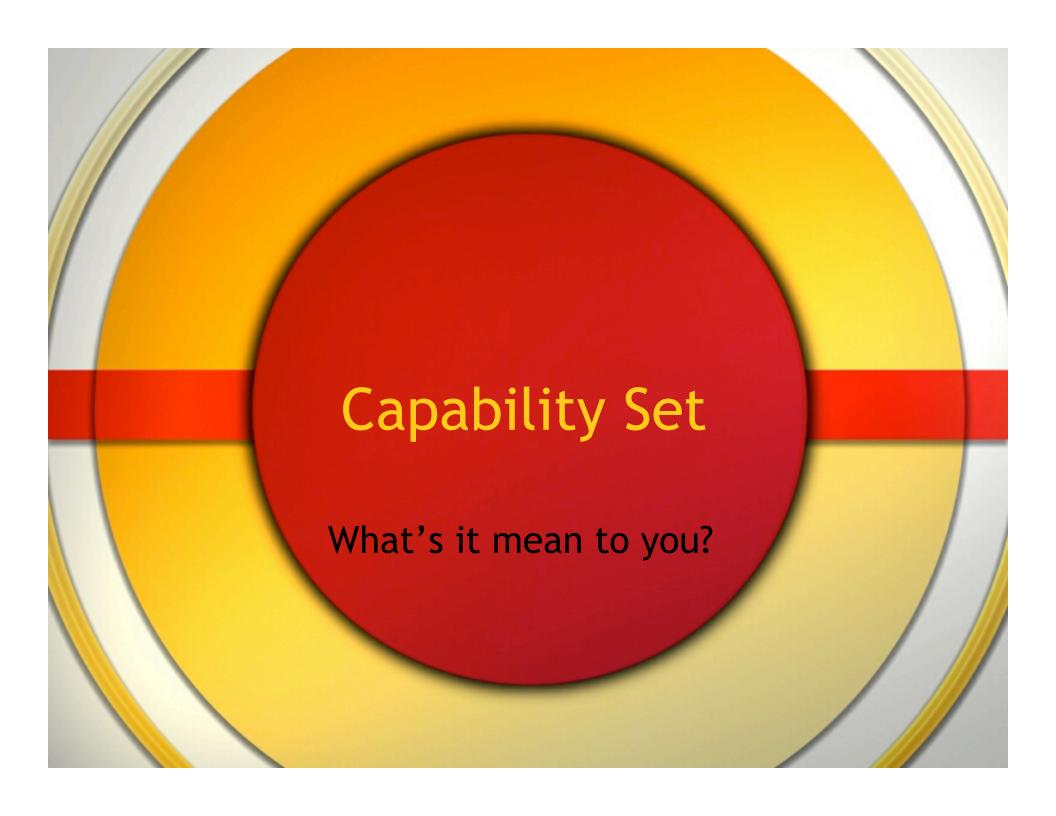

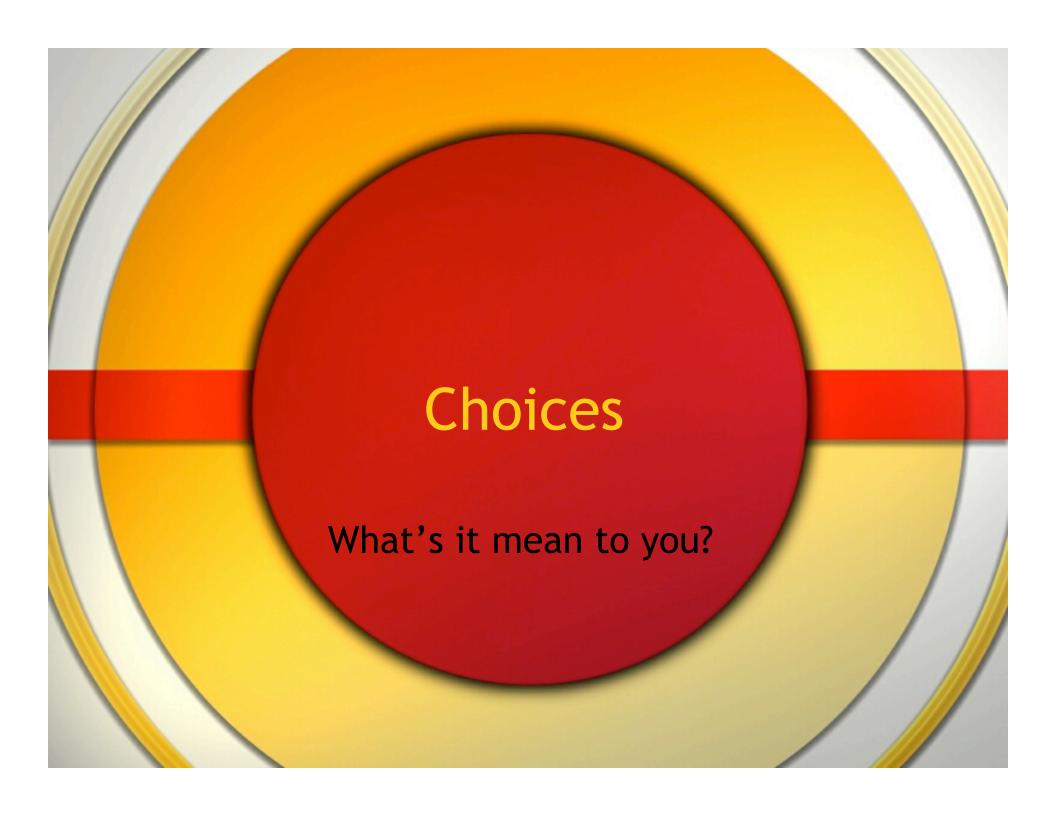

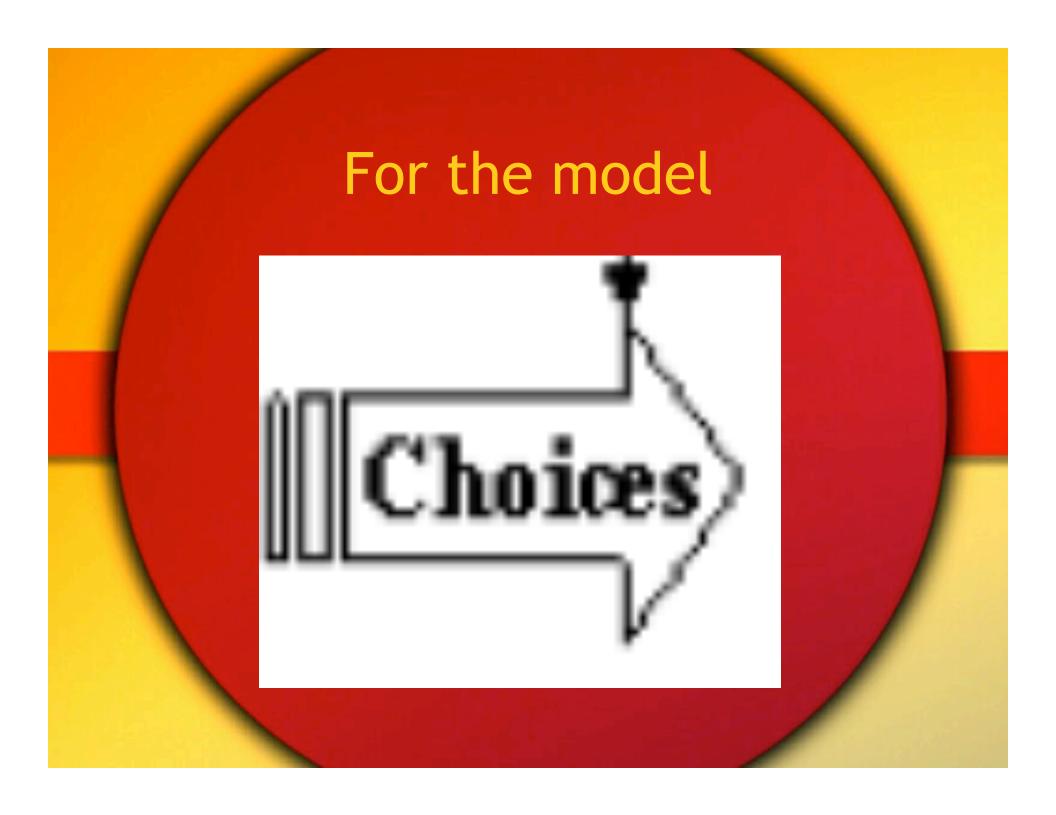

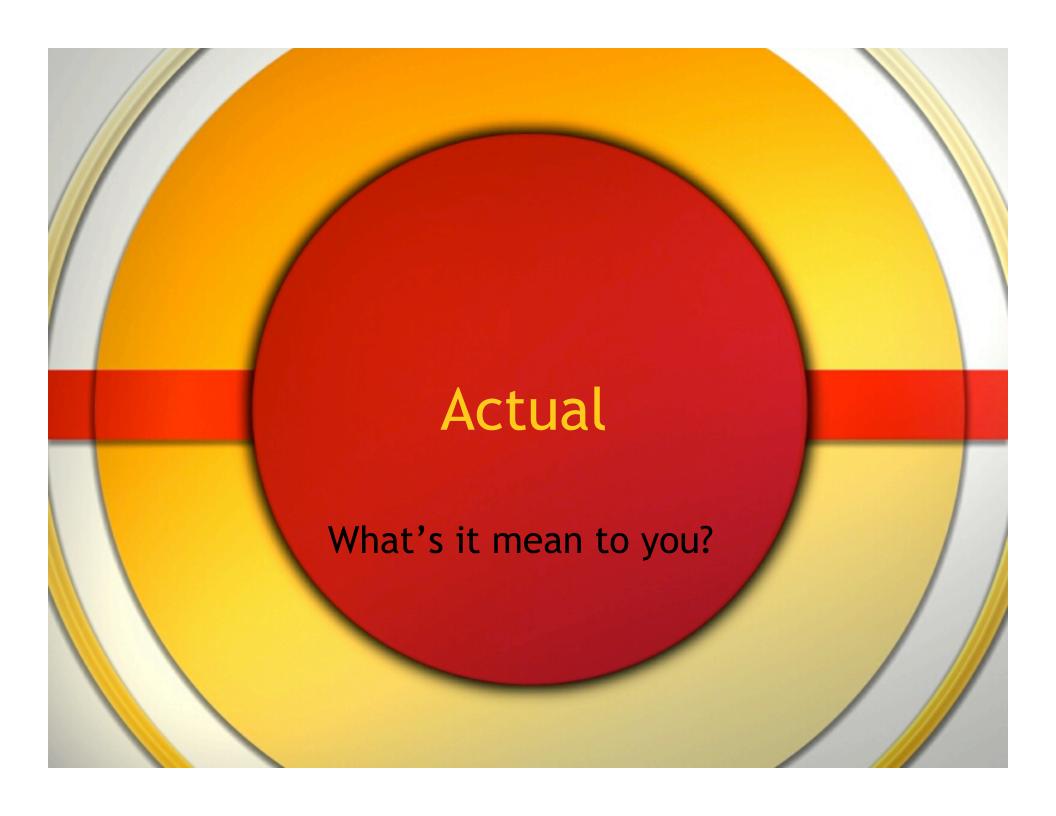

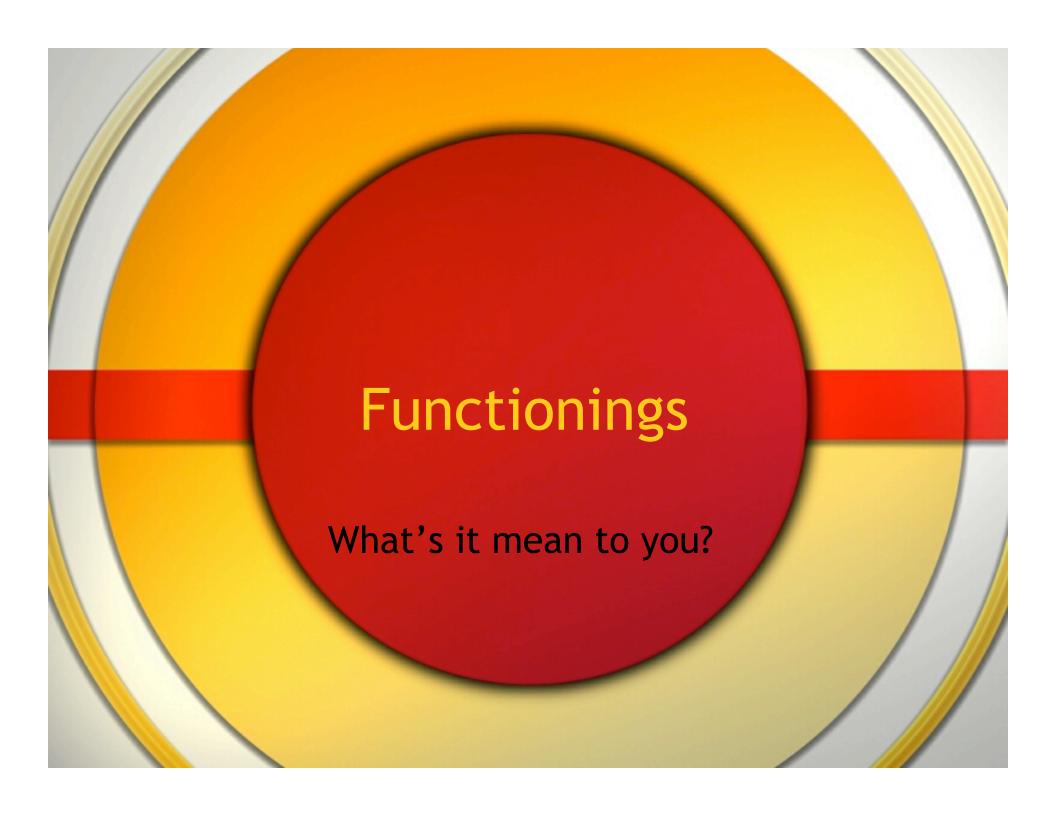

Capability Set

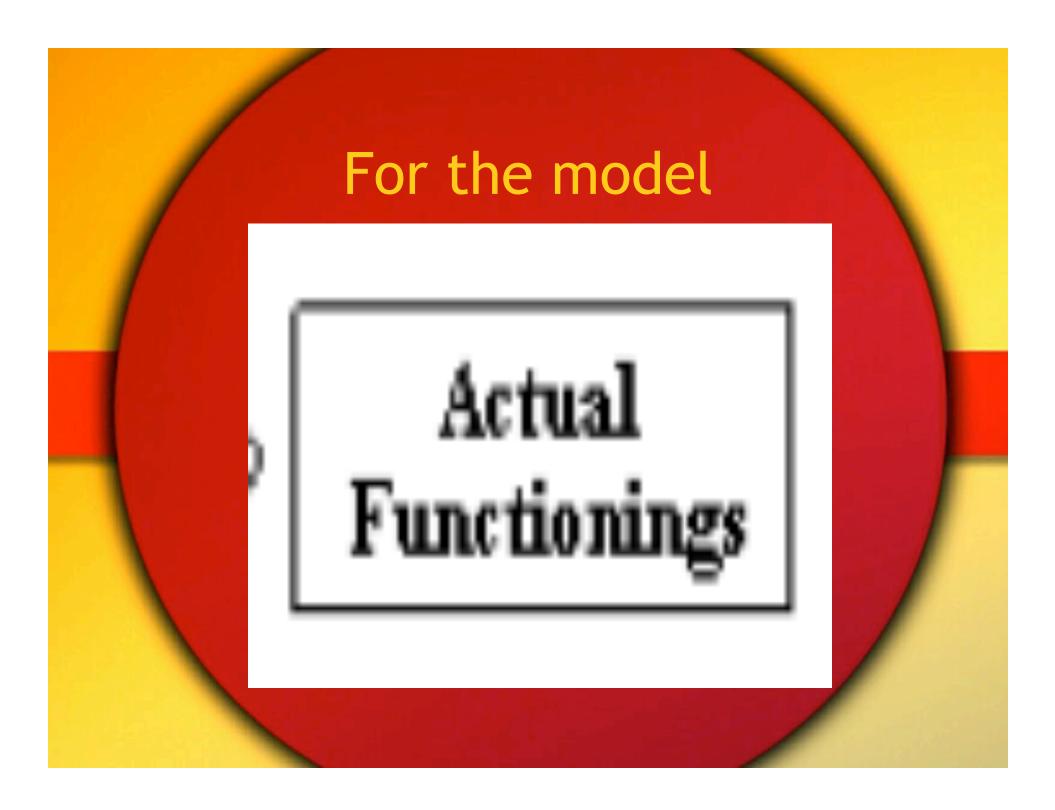

locally valued beings and doings

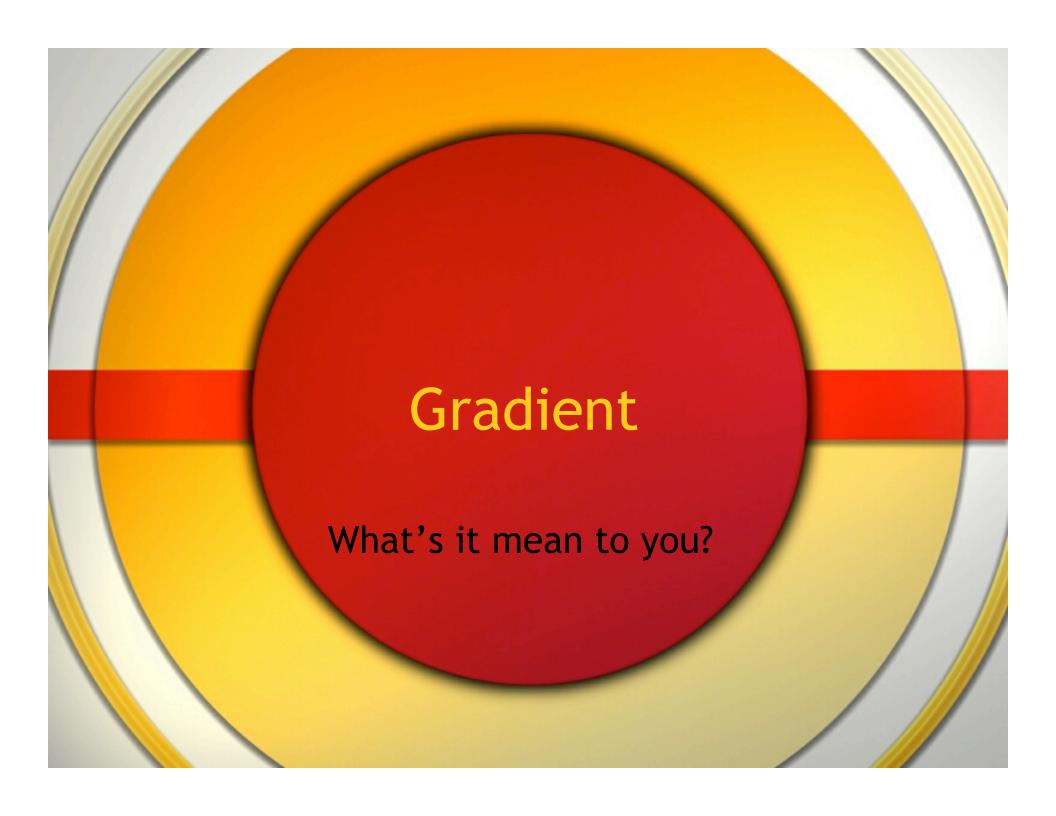

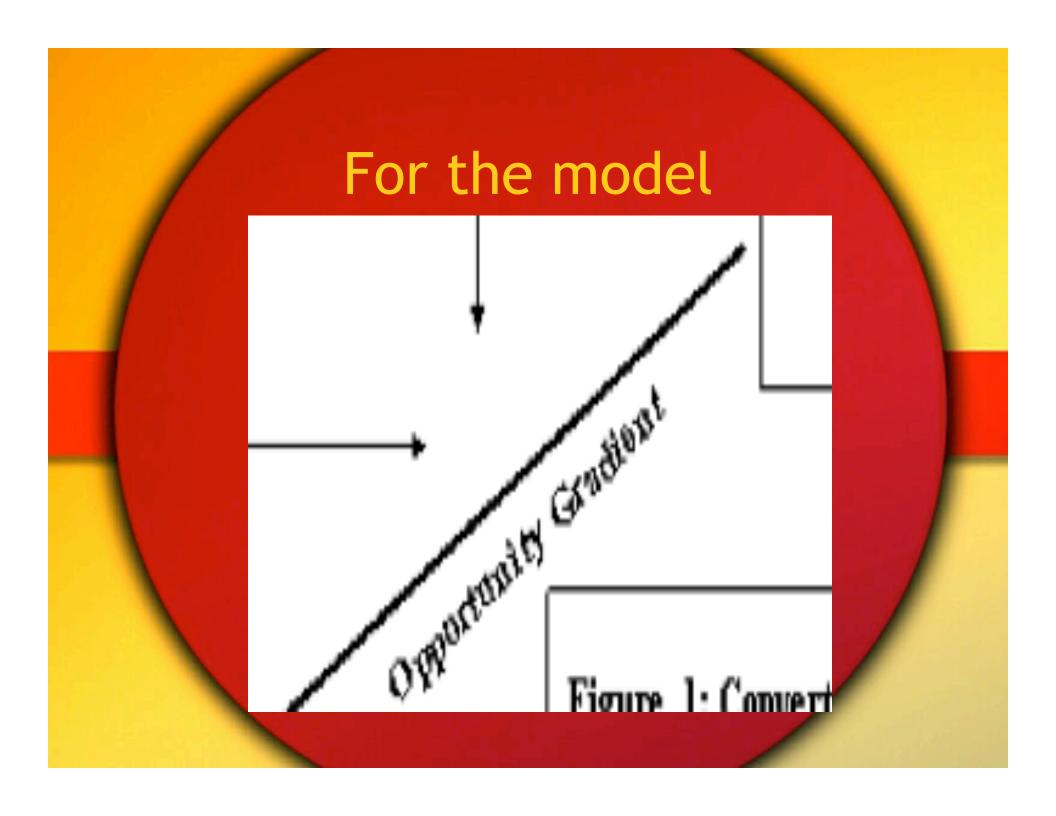

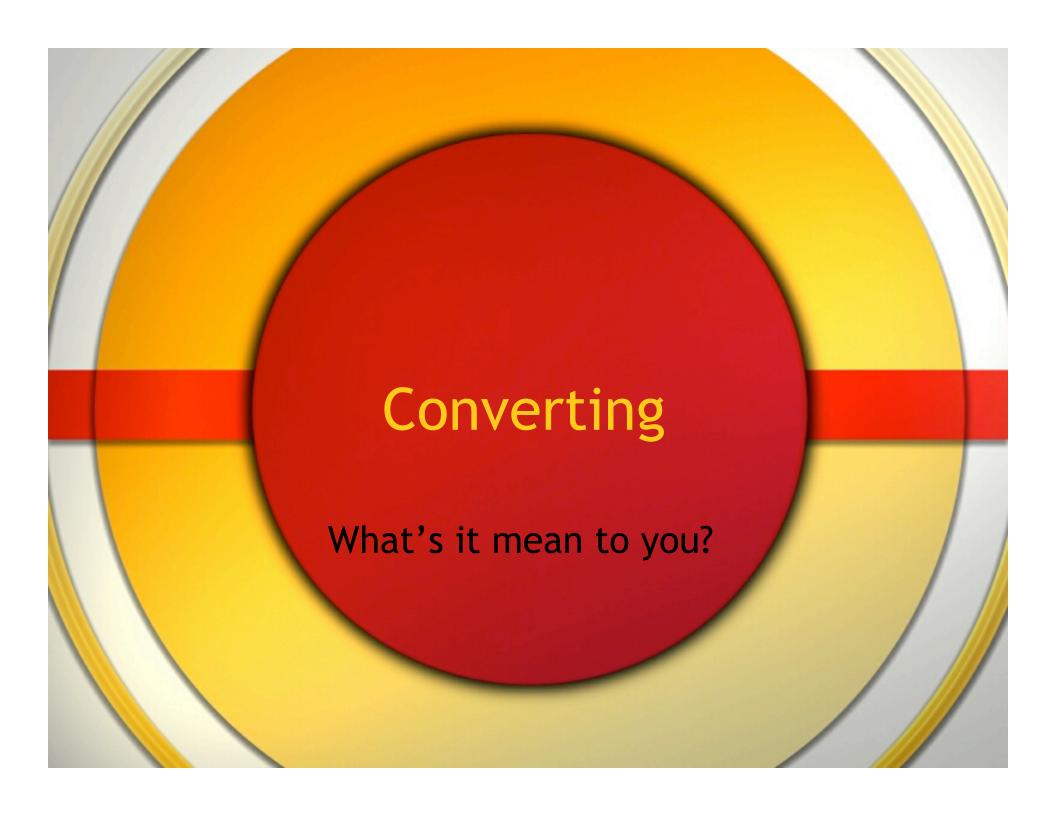

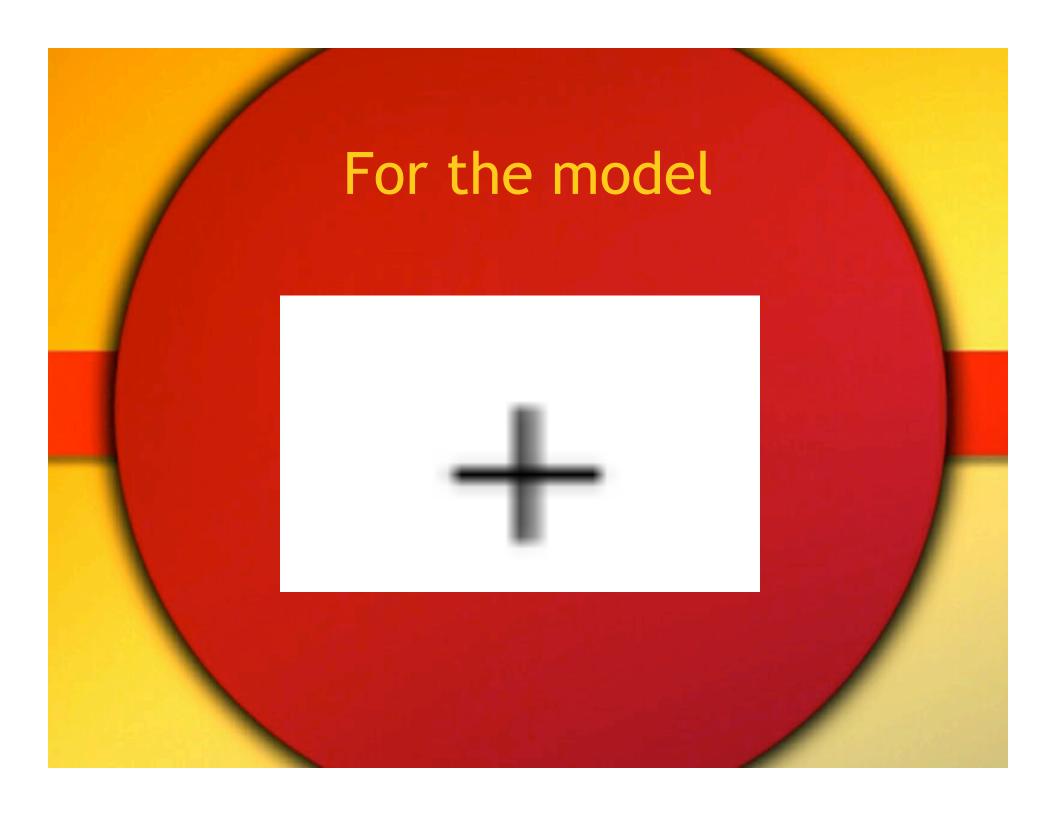

For the model

Figure 1: Converting Resources + Capacity into Capabilities

THE CAPABILITIES APPROACH

